WILL NOT COUNT THE COST

Senator Mason Will Introduce a Resolution

MILL OPERATIVES VS. EX-SLAVES

The Indiana Sprang a Leak in Her Boiler and Had to be Towed for Lack of Steam.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

RECOGNIZED BY HIS SNORE.

How a Greensboro Citizen Mistook a Hog For a Man.

A few nights ago a prominent citizen of southwest Greensboro, came up town and hunted up a policman. He related to the officer how, when he went out to his barn after dark he found the door to the ground floor partly ajar.

This was unusual, and the gentleman approached cautiously and listened intently near the door. There was no mistake about it, there was a tramp asleep in his barn. He could hear him snoring. He crept inside and lighted a match. By its faint glimmer he saw the dark form of the "tramp" lying contentedly in the hay.

About this time the gentleman, whose name we withhold, felt a creeping, chilly sensation stealing over him and he quietly withdrew and decided to go for a policeman and have the base intruder arrested.

The officer readily accompanied him, and, with a lantern, entered the barn to break the peaceful slumber of the aforesaid vagrant, and to the great surprise of the policeman and chagrin of the man who heard the snoring and actually saw the form of a man, they found—a two hundred pound hog.

In the language of Edgar Allan Poe: "simply this is nothing more."

THE WORK OF THE STORM.

Harrowing Tales of Exposure and Starvation.

RAN DOWN A FERRY BOAT.

Bay is Full of Ice And All Traffic is Delayed--Thermometer is Playing With Zero.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Jan. 31.—A blinding snow has been falling since three o'clock this morning. The steamship Portia crashed into the ferryboat Nevada and nearly sank it. There was intense excitement aboard, but by prompt action, the disabled boat was towed ashore before it could go down. The bow of the Portia was considerably damaged.

BAY FULL OF ICE.

The thermometer last night was a few degrees above zero. The bay and river are full of ice, causing much delay of traffic. The poor are suffering greatly. The snow began falling in the early morning, and continued to noon without sign of abatement.

ENCOUNTERED PACKED ICE.

The Red Cross Line Steamship Portia arrived this morning four days overdue from St. Johns, New Foundland and Halifax, after a desperate encounter with packed ice. She brought harrowing tales of blizzards, and reports of hundreds of men, women and children, dying from exposure and starvation, with an abundance close by, and hundreds more are threatened with the same fate.

THE COLDEST NIGHT.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Schenectady, Jan. 31.—Last night was the coldest yet in the Mohawk Valley, the mercury registering to twenty-three degrees below zero.

THE ICE HARVEST.

TORTURED BY MASKED MEN.

A Recluse Has Knives Stuck in Him, and His Hair Singed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Guthrie, O. T., Jan. 31.—Two masked men broke into the house of Louis A. Stanwood, a recluse, last night near Harvey, and tortured him by sticking a knife into his limbs, and burning off his hair and whiskers until he gave up his money, which only amounted to a few dollars. They next visited the home of John Hensley and robbed him. They held up John McFarland on the street, and were going to a fourth place when they were scared off by a rifle. Luther Weaver and Will Henderson, sons of prominent farmers have been arrested.

SHE CARRIED A MUSKET.

A Woman Who Fought in the Late War.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Athens, Ga., Jan. 31.—It has come to light that Mrs. Caricters who was burned to death last week was so loyal to the South during the rebellion, that she shouldered her gun, went to the front and went through several important engagements. She was most highly respected by all who knew her.

Robbed a Postoffice.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Canton, Mass., Jan. 31.—The postoffice here was robbed early this morning of $2,000 in stamps.

Hid His Savings in Books.

Mr. Deitrich Hoelscher, an old bachelor, who taught the Lutheran school at Black Jack for the past thirty-seven years, died one day last week. He had lived unostentatiously, but as his salary had only been $30 a month, out of which he had to pay $15 per month board, it was thought that his estate comprised only his library and a few articles of personal effect. Henry Richterkessing was appointed administrator, and yesterday he went out to make an inventory of the belongings of the deceased. While examining a book in the library he accidently discovered some paper money between the leaves. A further search revealed paper, gold and notes amountiug to $1,500, which he had secreted in books, behind pictures and in various nooks and corners. Mr. Hoelscher's only heir is a brother, who lives in Venice, Ill.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

DIGGING THROUGH GOLD.

A Find of Gold Ore on the Durham & Charlotte Railway.

On the new railway, the Durham & Charlotte, which is now being built through Moore county, what appears to be a rich vein of gold ore was discovered a few days ago. This find is about one mile from the junction of the Durham & Charlotte with the Carthage & Western, and not more than two miles from the Belle gold mine, owned by Messrs. Harrison & Linton. Not many miles away is the famous Gold Region in western Moore county, where is located the Gold Hill, the Cagle mine, and several others which have already been worked more or less extensively and profitably. The new vein was discovered by a force of hands who were digging through a hill, opening a cut for the roadway of the Durham & Charlotte. It is on the land of Rev. J. B. Richardson, of High Point, formerly of Moore and a brother of the late Col. W. B. Richardson.

Specimens of the ore from this new find have been sent to Philadelphia to be assayed. Local experts have pronounced it good. However, its true value will not be known until the report of the assayist has been received. The Telegram ventures the assertion that very few railroad companies are making a roadbed out of gold ore.

UNDER WATER TO THE POLE.

A Scheme Which Rivals Andree's Flight North.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 29—Mr. Simon Lake, the inventor of the submarine boat Argonaut, and Mr. Alfred Riedel a German journalist, of this city, today addressed President D. C. Gilman and twenty professors of Johns-Hopkins Hospital with a proposition to find the North Pole with a submarine boat.

The meeting took place at the University, the professors having consented sometime ago to the conference Mr. Lake used a blackboard to illustrate the plan of a vessel for the voyage, which will be based on the lines of the submarine vessels. Many new details are not given out for publication as Lake and Riedel are seeking patents. Mr. Riedel in addressing the professors said that the boat would be thoroughly tested by a preliminary trip to the Arctic regions in winter and a voyage across the Atlantic in summer.

It is proposed to start at the point from which Professor Andree sailed in his balloon or from the vicinity of Jackson's camp in Franz Joseph Land. The expedition will start in July when there is most open water and when ice is encountered the vessel will submerge herself and run under it. When it is desired to come to the surface for air or observations an opening will be made in the ice with a giant screw or by the use of torpedoes.

It is calculated that the submarine vessel would not have to go more than five hundred miles under ice. After hearing the plans the professors went to the water front at the foot of South street and inspected the Argonaut. The vessel had been sunk and raised successfully at least twenty times. A diver has repeatedly passed in and out the vessel while it was submerged, and at the same time telephone messages have been sent to New York.

CHICAGO LAWLESSNESS.

Four Robbers Raid a Dinner Party and Secure Spoils Worth $800.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—Four robbers last evening broke up a dinner party at 406 West Madison street, locked the diners in a room and ransacked the house, securing money and jewelry to the value of $800. Joseph Mason and his sister Mattie were entertaining Miss Bessie Monihan of New York and Samuel Barton, when a knock on the door, answered by Mason, introduced four men with drawn revolvers. Each of the four diners was robbed, the thugs securing money and watches from the men and ear and finger rings and bracelets from the women. Barton lost $122.75 and a diamond ring worth $65. The victims were then locked in a side room while the uninvited visitors searched the apartments.

Big Paper Combine.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Albany, Jan- 31—The International Paper Company, of Corinth, Saratoga county, a combination of all the big firms in the country, filed articles of incorporation with a capital of $40,000,000.

Nansen Gone Home.

New York, Jan. 29.—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, the famous arctic explorer who has been giving a series of lectures in this country, sailed today on the Campannia homeward bound.

GERMANY TAKES MEASURES

To Avenge the Killing of Her Sentries

FATHERLAND SHORT OF CASH

Txpenditures Exceed Revenues and Trouble and a Deficit Are Expected to Follow.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Pekin, Jan. 31—The German admiral has taken prompt measures to secure redress for the killing of sentries at Kia Chou. Serious results are not expected as a consequence. The rumor that England has withdrawn her protest as to Port Arthur, and that she has ceased to exert pressure to secure the opening of Talienwan is regarded by diplomats as incredible. Such a course would be suicidal to British interests and prestige in the Orient.

INSUFFICIENT REVENUE.

Hamburg, Jan. 31—It is feared that there will be serious trouble this year because of an insufficiency of revenue. The legislature has appropriated more money than the revenues justified and there will be difficulty in making both ends meet.

ANOTHER VERSION.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manchester, Eng., Jan. 39—A cable dispatch to the Manchester Guardian says that the difficulty in the far east has been settled by the opening of Port Arthur to trade on the same term as Kiao Chau, England withdrawing her demand for the opening of Talienwan.

IF NOT THE POPULISTS, WHO?

It is well known that the present administration is not that of co-operation, as Russell, the appointing power in North Carolina, was not a fusion candidate, but obtained his nomination in the republican convention by the most shameless methods of corruption and that he was in no sense the candidate of the populist party. True, many populists voted for him because of the populist candidate's actions just prior to the election.—Hayseeder.

The above is from an article attempting to acquit the populist party in the state of all responsibility for what is termed "public scandals."

We sympathize with the motives of the Hayseeder, which are very praiseworthy, but thus much cannot be said for its logic. If the populists did not help to elect the present governor who did? Did the republicans elect him by themselves? "True, many of the populists voted for him." Yes, very true, indeed; enough to elect him and therefore the populist party is responsible for Russell and Russellism.

Why did populists vote for Russell if there was not co-operation between the republican and populist parties? The excuse is a flimsy one. "It is well known" that whatever may have appeared upon the surface, Grand Autocrat and Chief Mogul Butler passed the word down the line that Russell must be elected.

Even if Russell had not received a single populist vote that party would have been indirectly responsible for the election of Governor Russell. It took away from the democratic party a large part of that voting strength which had contributed to democratic control in the state and through democratic control to clean and economical government.

Directly and indirectly the populist party is responsible for the present administration and however distasteful it may be, must swallow the dose.

In case an actual test of the fighting capacity of the American fleet should come, it is not improbable that Americans would be humiliated by the result. The Indiana, it appears, was disabled on the journey south and had to be towed. There were other mishaps. Nearly every attempt to manoeuvre the warships have been attended by a mishap of some sort. Our vessels have run aground, leaked and done most other things that a warship should not. It is coming to be pretty well admitted that the turrets will not stand the discharge of the heavy guns mounted in them without being damaged so as to become unmanageable. The United States, to her humiliation, may learn that the greatship builders, instead of providing her with an efficient navy, have foisted upon her a lot of worthless death traps. Such things have been known to happen.

An esteemed contemporary devotes much space to telling what trade marks are inoffensive to the Chinese. It inadvertently omitted £.

Senator Mason in view of the coming Spanish cruiser, may be said to have chosen a rather inopportune time to raise war enthusiasm.

That Greater New York should be forced to spend $50,000 to get rid of one little snow indicates that it ain't so warm after all.

---

The anti-flirtation bill, just defeated in the Virginia legislature, probably owed its origin to a conspiracy between the gallants and cynics of that body.

The assurance from Havana that the Maine could rake that city would raise more patriotic ardor if it did not suggest what the Spanish cruiser coming a-visiting could do to New York.

Not at all. It generally means two souls whose joint powers are just equal to one thought.

After all that has been said about President McKinley's New York speech, it was only another proof of what was already pretty well established, viz: Mr. McKinley's utter inability to grasp the true significance of conditions, and to express them in clear, intelligible English.

Jerry Simpson's "dress-coat anarchy" may not mean anything and it may be a terse description of a phase of American civilization. That is a question on which a good many people in this country are trying to make up their minds. ### Curt, but Appropos.

"Now," said the lady who gossips, "I am going to tell you something. But you must remeber that it was told to me in confidence and you mustn't repeat it."

"Perhaps," suggested Miss Cayenne, "it would be better for you not to tell me."

"Why not?" was the query, in astonishment.

"If a lady of your self-command can't keep from divulging it, I shouldn't like to trust myself with it."—Washington Star.

Exports and Imports.

Washington, Jan. 29—The value of exports from the United States in the calendar year 1897, as shown by revised figures of the treasury department, was $1,099,743,554, as compared with $1,005,837,241 in 1896. The imports were valued at $742,631,350, as against $681,579,556 in 1896. The balance of trade in favor of the United States, therefore, was $357,111,204. The exports for December last were valued at $125,088,470, and the imports at $51,515,228. The exports for the month were $7,000,000 more than December, 1896, but the imports were less by about $7,500,000.

"How about that bill you promised to introduce?" inquired the constituent.

"I kept my promise," replied the member of Congress. "I introduced it, but nobody appeared to desire its further acquaintance."—Washington Star.

"Strange, 'tis Passing Strange"

That all who suffer do not use

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

Hopewell, Mecklenburg Co., N. C.
December 1, 1896.

Last June I was suffering terribly from some bladder trouble which was so severe and extreme that the physicians said an operation would have to be performed and the stone crushed. I dreaded it so much and had so much faith in Mrs. Joe Person's wash that I determined to try it first and see what it would do. I applied it three times a day and in Thirty-six hours the inflamation subsided, the swelling and enlargement was reduced and the stone passed without any trouble. The stone was large and no one can know except those who have so suffered what it was. I do not believe I could have stood an operation and believe I would have died had it not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Wash. If any one is suffering from this bladder trouble let them try it. My pain would be so great that I would have to be put in a tub of hot water to relieve those terrible paroxysms of pain. It made a perfect cure of me. Oh, that everyone could realize what medicine is within reach and try it, how much suffering would be relieved. Mrs. Person herself does not say as much for the Remedy as it deserves.

PROOF-READERS LINEN.

He Renewed it Weekly on the Strength of an Editorial.

Chinese are pretty shrewd people in trade, conversation and commerce. Nobody ever got the better of one except a Jacksonville editor, but the Chinaman did not die of a broken heart, for he recognized that editors are the smartest people in the world.

The editor in question came to the office from a banquet late, and found the foreman standing up on his hind legs howling for six inches of paragraphs. (Foreman never measures brains by quality, but as a clerk does cloth—by the yard.

The editor after much toil and sundry naps, wrote the paragraphs. One of these proved unintelligible to the proofreader; who stuck it in his vest pocket, resolving to ask the editor next day what he meant.

On his way to the office he stopped in at a Chinaman's to get a collar he had left there on Monday before. (Proof-readers are economical people with all things that are their own.) He inadvertently handed the editorial paragraph to the Chinaman, who smiled, stuck the slip on a hook, handed him a package containing 8 shirts, 46 collars and 19 pairs of 6-ply cuffs.

That proofreader was a thrifty and observant man. He never after that lacked for clean linen. Every week he took an editorial paragraph to a Chinaman's and got a fine large bundle of clothes.—Jacksonville Citizen.

EATS A GOOSE EVERY DAY.

Started to Devour Thirty and Has Gotten Away With 23.

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 29.—Charles Wurz undertook three weeks ago to eat a goose a day until he put away thirty geese. He has already disposed of twenty-three geese. If he eats the remaining seven in seven days he will win $200. If he fails he will lose a like amount to Charles Rose.

By the terms of the wager Wurz is allowed twenty-four hours for each bird. The goose, after being picked and cleaned, must weigh not less than six nor more than eleven pounds. The eating must be done in the presence of appointed witnesses, fellow-members of an Elk Lodge.

Rose furnishes the geese. The breast is boiled, the wings and the legs are fried, and the back is roasted brown. All, including the gizzard, must be eaten.

A FATAL FIGHT.

One Man Killed and Two Wounded.

A Wilson special to the Wilmington Messenger says:

A horrible affray took place Friday night at about 7:30 o'clock at Lamm's store, about six miles from Wilson. T. R. Lamm and Pearson Eatman got into a difficulty over a settlement, and soon fighting took place. Lamm was shot with a pistol by Eatman in the right side and may die. Eatman was killed by either T. R. Lamm or his son Chas. Lamm, being fearfully beaten on the face and his head was split open, his brains running out on the ground. Stephen Eatman, a young son of Pearson, was horribly beaten with a stick on the face and head, but will probably recover. Feeling in the neighborhood seems to be with the Eatmans.

Realistic Stage Shooting.

Shamokin, Pa., Jan. 29—When Joseph wise, an amateur theatrical manager, of Mt. Carmel, tried to draw a loaded army musket from beneath the stage during a rehearsal, the trigger caught in a joist and discharged the weapon. The entire load of shot entered his abdomen and pierced his intestines so horribly that he cannot possibly recover.

Humiliation of Weyler.

Madrid, Jan. 29.—It is understood here that the Supreme War Council will sentence General Weyler to two months' imprisonment, but the Government will grant him a pardon. Criticising President McKinley's message is the offense.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Fined For Flirting.

New York, Jan. 27—Complaints having been made to Police Captain Stephenson that waitresses at East Side cafes sat close to the windows and flirted with passers-by, the Captain detailed three of his detectives to apprehend the the offending girls, who were easy victims. As soon as one of them smiled at one of the detectives he entered the place and arrested her. After three had been locked up the word was quickly passed around and the detectives were able to capture only five others.

When arraigned in Essex Market Court, Justice Crane gave them a severe lecture. "This flirting must be stopped," he said, and then fined the prisoners $10 each. They were bunched in a corner of the Court room until the fine was paid by friends.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

John Finlator returned today from an extended southern trip.

The electric lights were burned until after daybreak this morning. Good.

Lindau advertises nice pig hams, sweet and delicious, at eleven cents a pound.

G. Daniel has a few words to say in the penny ads today about 1897 and 1898 bicycles.

The management promises that the play tonight will be dressy and that the stage settings and costuming will be excellent.

C. A. Rayle, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Greensboro and Guilford county, returned to his home at Westfield, Ind., on the noon train today.

Those expecting to attend the Wm. H. Sherwood Concert are advised to get their seats reserved at once. The good seats are being taken fast, and to wait a day may be too late. Don't put it off.

There was a full house at the Benbow Saturday night. Every room in the building was occupied, and the parlors and drawing room were utilized by placing cots therein. The other hotels, also, had good crowds. Greensboro is a good stop-over-for-Sunday place.

A simple and cheap remedy to keep snow off the brick sidewalks is to sprinkle them with salt when the snow begins to fall. It was tried in front of C. M. Vanstory & Co's and J. W. Scott & Co's. this morning and worked like a charm, the flakes vanishing almost as quickly as if they had fallen on the smooth surface of a pond of water. Remember this and try it. The remedy was suggested by street superintendent, Sam Brown.

First Snow This Winter.

Early yesterday morning the first snow of the winter began falling in Greensboro. It began fine and slow and looked like laying the foundation for a big snow. It kept up until night when there was a lull and early this morning it began again. Visions of boyhood's rabbit hunting days drifted before our mental gaze as the earth was being wrapped in a winding sheet, "and the drifting snow still fell."

About 10 o'clock, however, the beauful flakes ceased falling and by noon there was little left of the white mantle, save mud and slush where the mantle melted. The sun shone brightly for a while, then about 2:30 p. m. the rather unusual phenomenon of rain, hail and snow falling at the same time was witnessed. The weather tomorrow will be—but wait till tomorrow.

The Sun on Sherwood.

The New York Sun in speaking of Wm. H. Sherwood who is to apper here later says: Besides the above, which were new to the public, Saint-Saens' ever-poetic and wonderful piano concerto in G Minor was miraculously played by Wm. H. Sherwood, one of the greatest pianists of the world today.

Through Snow to "Whittier."

On account of the temperance lecture last Monday evening, the literary meeting of the West Market Epworth League was postponed until this evening, when the interesting program prepared will be carried out. Don't let the snow prevent your being present, and you will be repaid.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. E. Holton.

WANG AT THE ACADEMY.

In the Main the Play Was Pleasing to the Play-Goers.

Opinions as to Wang were somewhat divided, though in the main the play seemed to be eminently satisfactory. It should at least be said of it that it was all the advance notices claimed for it—entertaining nonsense.

The smallness of the stage necessarily prevented the company from putting on much scenery, and indeed Wang had to walk by the elephant instead of riding him, and this detracted from the general effect to a degree.

Dan Packard, as Wang, was very clever, indeed, and Miss Laura Denio as Crown Prince, made a most charming youth and a decided hit with the audience. She was exceedingly graceful in the acting required by the role and her excellent voice made her musical parts popular.

Miss Florence Drake, as Marie, was also a favorite.

Taken all in all, Wang, perhaps, gave as good satisfaction as any attraction that has appeared here this year. There were some parts of it that smacked a little of the circus but they were neither very numerous nor long protracted and were so manifestly aimed at the gallery deities that it would be superfluous to carp at them. A notice of the play would be incomplete without mention of Frank Casey, as the Elephant Keeper. He was an excellent colored comedian.

The support of the better players was rather poor and the acting wooden, but a metropolitan rendering of the opera was hardly to be expected since the number of players was so large.

The company left here this morning for Raleigh, where Wang is given tonight.

All this week the Lillian Tucker repertorie company will play at the Academy, except on Friday night, when the Veteran Corps Band appears.

At the Academy of Music.

The Lillian Tucker Co. opens a week's engagement at the Academy of Music tonight, in "La Belle Marie," the fourth week of their Southern trip. Miss Tucker and her company made the long jump from Halifax, Nova Scotia to Lynchburg, Va., where they were enthusiastically received by crowded houses, and where Miss Tucker is now an established favorite. At Danville, Va., and Durham, N. C., the company succeeded in delighting large audiences, and won for themselves a most enviable reputation. A most pleasing feature of each evenings entertainment are the specialties between the acts of the Dyffrn trio, including Little Ethel, the Baby Patti, Miss Mary Horne and Mr. George F. Moore which always proves a great source of delight to the audience, making the performance a continuous one.

Two Fine Band Concerts.

The Veteran Corps Band, of Baltimore, gave two concerts at the Academy of Music yesterday for the benefit of the Confederate Museum. The audiences were decidedly enthusiastic. The programmes were admirable and well calculated to appeal to all classes.

Miss Daisy Ogden, the cornetist, played in a highly finished manner, and Miss Anne Janet Henrix sang several selections with perfect purity of voice. Prof. G. Noweck's baritone solo, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," defies all description, as it was simply grand. And last was the solo of Prof. Fred. Lax, (soloist in Gilmor's Band for ten years,) on his flageolet; Prof. Lax has no equal on this instrument; and it was one of the finest solos rendered. The Band did excellent work, and played with admirable precision.—The Richmond Dispatch, December 12, 1897.

At the Academy of Music, Friday night Feb. 4th.

Time Extended.

On account of the bad weather the time in which reserved seat tickets to the Veteran Corps Band may be had at general admission prices has been extended to Wednesday night, After that reserved seats will be 75 cents. The press notices of the Band have been very flattering everywhere it has appeared. The appearance, it should be remembered, is for the benefit of the Eagle Hose Company.
